Highlights of The Musée d'Orsay

Follow your guide through the museum's collection of Impressionist paintings, the biggest in the world, and discover masterpieces of artists such as Monet, Renoir, Van Gogh, Pissarro, Degas and many more. You will also see the original model of the Statue of Liberty as well as sculptures by Rodin. To help keep the children engaged and entertained throughout this 2-hour visit, they will each get a game booklets, helping them learn about Impressionism as much as they have fun.

Treasure Hunt at the Louvre

This morning, meet your professional guide at the Louvre. Follow your guide through its beautiful galleries in search of 9 of its most famous highlights, including the Mona Lisa, the Venus de Milo and the Winged Victory of Samothrace (Nike). The young treasure hunters will engage in a captivating quest to find Mona Lisa treasure through a series of puzzles, clues and riddles, and learn about the museum's highlights. With entertaining fun facts as well as stories about the Middle Ages, the Italian Renaissance and objects even dating as far back as Ancient Egypt, your guide will keep both you and your children excited through this 2-hour discovery.

Eiffel Tower Skip the Line Ticket Summit Priority Access

An hour-long tour of the Eiffel tower and its striking Summit awaits you. Spend some time exploring the landmark on your own afterwards.

Pompidou Centre Inside Out Museum

For children: From the "Galerie des enfants" (Kids Gallery) to the museum, and from the "Atelier des enfants" (Kids Studio) to the major temporary exhibitions, the Centre Pompidou has devised activities for all ages and tastes!
For parents: At the Centre Pompidou, adults are there to take part in the current activity as go-betweens and players. The participatory dimension of projects encourages the delight of making things and having fun together, sharing a moment of creativity as a family.

Seine River Sightseeing Cruise with Lunch

Glide down the River Seine while enjoying a gourmet 3-course lunch aboard a Bateaux Parisiens river cruise. Soak up views of riverside attractions like the Louvre, Eiffel Tower, Notre-Dame and Musée d'Orsay as you dine on seasonal selections from an à la carte menu, accompanied by wine. Enjoy live entertainment and a welcome glass of Champagne for a bubbly beginning to the experience.

Private Tour of Montmartre

Let your guide take you and your children through the charming, narrow cobblestone streets of Montmartre, in search of its secrets, its village-like atmosphere and its notorious artistic ambiance. From the outside of the Sacré Coeur Basilica to the Montmartre Museum and the animated Place du Tertre, the fun-facts and stories heard will keep everyone entertained. And the game booklets handed out to each child at the start of the tour will turn this 2-hour walking tour into an experience they will never forget.

Private Guided Tour of Versailles and Gardens

Meet your private guide at the Palace of Versailles. Located outside the city, this is where the last kings of France ruled, lived and feasted in grand luxury. Follow your guide as he/she takes you inside this iconic palace and through the King's State Apartments to witness its grandeur and understand why it has inspired so many other architects worldwide. From the Hercules, Mercury and Apollo rooms to the dazzling Hall of Mirrors, your guide will tell you real stories and fun facts to keep you and your children entertained. And with a fun-filled game booklet in hand, discovering the Palace of Versailles and the Kings of France has never been so much fun for the children. At the end of the tour, you can choose to visit the famous gardens at your own pace without your guide.
