Used by Louis XIV initially as a hunting lodge, he had the property expanded to become the magnificent site of French classical architecture complete with extensive manicured gardens that it is today. The interior showcases magnificent examples of baroque furnishings, a rare collection of objects d' art and houses special exhibitions.

Day 2

Half Day Guided Tour of The Louvre

Today, the Louvre is one of the most important and most visited museums in the world. It is also the biggest museum in Paris, extending over 210,000 m<sup>2</sup>. On their first visit to the Louvre, people often want to see the museum's three great ladies — the Venus de Milo, the Victory of Samothrace, and Mona Lisa. Your guide will take you to discover these and other key works and reflect upon that indefinable notion of "masterpiece."

Visit the Eiffel Tower

Your driver guide will take you to Paris's most recognizable monument: the Eiffel Tower. When Gustave Eiffel's company built the tower for the 1889 World's Fair, many regarded the massive iron structure with skepticism. Today, the Eiffel Tower, which continues to serve an important role in television and radio broadcasts, is considered an architectural wonder and attracts more visitors than any other paid tourist attraction in the world.
