Day 1

VIP Meet & Greet Airport Arrival

A guide will meet you and assist you through passport control and escort you to your driver.

Riad Fes - Fez, Morocco

2 Nights

Duration

Pioneers in the rehabilitation of the old Riads of the thousand-year-old city, it is as enthusiasts of our city, of our cultural and architectural heritage and of the Moroccan art of living and entertaining that we decided to restore this Riad to its original splendor. Formerly the property of a notable of the city, this Riad was home to one of the most refined families of Fez. It is in the respect of the tradition that we restored this palace of the XIVth century to make you live a unique experience. For 20 years, we have been at the service of our clients to help them discover Moroccan traditions in this luxurious and comfortable setting.

Amenities

Preferred Partner Amenities:

- Daily Breakfast Included

Day 2

Day Tour of Fez

Dive into the medina of Fez, itself a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Experience the scents and rhythms of Morocco's cultural capital. Founded at the confluence of the Rif and Middle Atlas Mountains, Fez has been a center of scholarship and trade for over 1200 years. As you explore this morning, you will wind in and out of a variety of souks from vegetable markets through the street of butchers, alleys of Harira soup cafes, weavers, carpenters and so much more. Pass the Blue Gate, the shrine of Moulay Idriss, and peak through the many entrances of the massive Al Quaraouiyine Mosque.

Day 3

White Camel Acacia Camp

1 Night

Duration

Escape the noise and chaos of everyday life and embark on a transformative journey through the Sahara Desert. Let the White Camel Acacia Camp be your sanctuary, where you can disconnect, reconnect with nature, and experience the genuine warmth and hospitality of the Berber people.

Amenities

Preferred Partner Amenities:

- Daily Breakfast Included

Day 4

Enjoy a Relaxing Morning by The Dunes at White Camel Acacia Camp

From the cool and serene winter months, where you can witness the breathtaking sunrise over the golden dunes, to the vibrant springtime when the desert blooms with colorful wildflowers, every season brings its own unique charm to the Camp.

Day 5

Dar Ahlam

3 Nights

Duration

Dar Ahlam, a Small Luxury Hotel, is a traditional Kasbah in the palm grove of Skoura at the gateway to the Southern Moroccan desert. It is a truly unique location, where everything is designed to ensure that your dreams come true. Dive into the welcoming atmosphere of this two-hundred-year-old Kasbah whose thick walls will wrap around you to protect you both from the cold desert nights and the heat of Moroccan summer days. Reach your bedroom by climbing the winding staircase which also takes you up to the spectacular views from our roof terrace.

Amenities

Preferred Partner Amenities:

Leisure Day at Dar Ahlam

You will have a 4x4 and driver included throughout your stay at Dar Ahlam. Visit the Glaoui Kasbah, once a home of a powerful clan. Take a short hike to a spot overlooking the valley and the old salt mines. Another suggested excursion is a visit to the Valley of the Roses. Explore this landscape of foot or by 4x4. Or explore the Skoura Oasis and visit the Kasbah Ameridil, dating to the 14th Century.

Private Tour of Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou

The Ksar of Ait Ben Haddou is a fortified village, or ksar, made up of earthen buildings surrounded by high walls and corner towers. It's a traditional pre-Saharan habitat that's considered a great example of Moroccan earthen clay architecture. After your tour, continue on your journey to Marrakesh.

Day 8

Le Farnatchi Marrakesh - Marrakesh, Morocco

4 Nights

Duration

Created by an award-winning British hotelier from three riads in the oldest part of the medina, Riad Farnatchi fuses traditional Moroccan design with a touch of European minimalism. With just ten suites, you will enjoy an intimate atmosphere in a boutique hotel that offers all modern conveniences.

Amenities

Preferred Partner Amenities:

- Daily Breakfast Included

Day 9

Day Tour of Marrakesh

Start your day with a visit to the Jardin Majorelle. The garden was a gift to Marrakesh from Yves-Saint Laurent. Purchased from the painter Jacques Majorelle, the garden is adorned with Majorelle blue, the color named for him. Continue to the Yves-Saint Laurent Museum, opened in October 2017. The museum highlights the life work of the designer, his works and his connection to Marrakech. Visit the opulent Saadien Tombs, the mausoleum of a great dynasty which once ruled North Africa. Continue to the Slat Al Azama Synagogue in the old mellah. The synagogue has a small museum with rotating exhibitions as well as a focus on the Jewish community of Morocco. Visit the Bahia Palace, a 19th-century palace with a trapezoidal garden, a huge, tiled courtyard, and many hidden treasures.

Walking Tour of Marrakesh

Start your day with a visit to Dar El Bacha, built for Pacha Thami El Glaoui, who ruled over Marrakesh from 1912 to 1956. Opened to the public in 2015, it is one of the medina's finest examples of Moroccan riad architecture and features exhibitions focused on Moroccan culture. Visit the architectural Secret Garden, a recently restored complex showcasing Islamic art and architecture. The garden and adjacent buildings date back 400 years. Visit the Medersa ben Youssef. The Medersa was part seminary, part dormitory and is a splendid example of Moroccan architecture's three core elements: intricate tile mosaics, carved plaster and painted cedar. Explore the endless souks of Marrakesh. Each trade and specialty clusters together over alleyways and squares. The colorful spice souks lead down the metalworkers clanging away.

Day at Leisure in Marrakesh

Enjoy a day of leisure or explore at your own pace prior to your transfer back to Casablanca.
